

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations air a Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the freedom of speech given to us by our founding fathers.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I thank them for serving my responsibilities to know everything I can about whom I will or will not vote for in the coming weeks.

I am proud of the republic I live in and have a stakeholders role in casting my vote in November to be as fully informed as I possibly can. It's important that we see real information about issues that matter.
